Brunch benefit — You Can Do This! Surviving Breast Cancer Without Losing Your Sanity is the title of a new book by Elisha Daniels, who was guest of honor at a brunch Dec. 9 at Anushka Spa, Salon and Cosmedical Centre in CityPlace.

The book is co-authored by Kelley Tuthill, a reporter at WCVB-TV in Boston.

Daniels is a fashion and beauty expert in Boston.

Both women are breast cancer survivors.

The book is informative and amusing with chapters such as "Hair Today, Gone Tomorrow" and "Lose the Cancer, Not Your Style."

The event was hosted by Diana Bell and Sandy Krakoff, a breast cancer survivor who "developed a special bond with Daniels.

"We supported each other through rough times," she said.

Both are members of the Breast Cancer Research Foundation Advisory Board.

Among Palm Beachers attending the brunch were: Ginger Feur, Rita Schneider, Evelyn Holtzman, Renee Stein, Sheila Palandjian and Dr. Shirley Siff.

Proceeds from book sales go to the BCRF, Krakoff said.
